The Honorable Sonny Callahan
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Callahan:

The Director has asked me to respond to and thank you for the invitation for him to be a guest speaker for the 1988 Crime Prevention Program's annual banquet.

Due to his very tight schedule, he has made it a general practice not to participate as a guest speaker at such events and therefore must decline your invitation.

I know the Director appreciates your having thought of him and joins me in extending all good wishes to you.

Sincerely,

/s/ David D. Gries

Dear Mr. Webster:

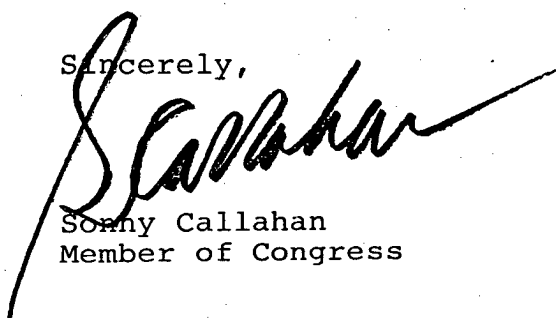

As you will see from the enclosed letter, I have been asked to extend an invitation to you to visit Mobile, Alabama, and to serve as speaker for the 1988 Crime Prevention Program's annual banquet. The banquet is scheduled for May 19, 1988, and Mr. Langan's letter gives additional details.

We would be extremely honored to have you in Mobile and I sincerely hope that you will be able to give the Exchange Club of Mobile's invitation every possible consideration.

If I can be of any assistance or provide additional information, please let me know.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Sonny:

The Exchange Club of Mobile for many years as a part of its Crime Prevention Program has been honoring the Mobile Police Department and the Sheriff's Department with a banquet. The Program has been conducted in conjunction with the Police and Sheriff's Departments as a part of Law Enforcement Week.

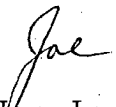

At the banquet the Exchange Club makes a presentation to the outstanding Police Officer and Deputy Sheriff of the year and in those years in which any officers have been killed or injured in line of duty the Exchange Club presents to such Officers its Blue and Gold Award, which is the equivalent of the Purple Heart in the military. This award was inaugurated by the Mobile Exchange Club and has been adopted by the National Exchange Club and is awarded nationwide.

The Mobile Police Department has also established several awards and medals which are given as a part of the program. The Mobile Chamber of Commerce has joined in the sponsorship of this program and banquet and this year we are also hoping to be able to raise some funds to provide for the rewards given by the Crimestoppers for information leading to the solution of crimes committed in Mobile County.

At next year's banquet to be held at the Mobile Hilton on the 19th day of May 1988, at 7:00 P. M. we would like very much to have the Honorable William H. Webster as the speaker for the occasion, and the planning committee requested that I write to you to ascertain if you would be willing to invite Mr. Webster to honor us on this occasion.

Thanking you for any assistance you may be able to give us in this matter and with highest personal regards and every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Joe Langan
